Mountain Pond

An "organic" take on a swimming pool. Modeled to look like a pond, but not be quite as large as the Lagoon shaped pools.

This shape is a great fit any size backyard. The layout allows for ledges or steps to be tucked away to give maximum swim space if put in the center radius.

FEATURES TO CONSIDER

A waterfall feature would look great in the reverse radius or "indent." Waterfalls give off the tranquil natural sound to cover up any outside noise that may be distracting you from enjoying your backyard oasis.

Sizes

15X30*	20X34
18X30*	24X40

23x42

AERIAL VIEW

14x28 Paradise Pool with bluestone coping and white plaster.

19x37 Paradise pool with Noche coping and Capri Plaster. Decking is finished with SandStone spray deck.

Lagoon

The mountain pond's big sister. A flowing pool with the option to have a large tanning ledge without losing too much swimming area.

The natural shape of this pool gives the feeling of being around an oasis or a crystal clear lake so that you can truly escape no matter where you are.

FEATURES TO CONSIDER

The lagoon pools look great with an added grotto feature. This shape also pairs well with a round spill over spa so that you can enjoy the sound of running water to add to your escape.

Sizes

16x34x25

18x37x29

AERIAL VIEW

16x32 Roman End Pool featuring Florida Stucco's Sky Blue Aggregate Plaster, Ivory coping, and a statue water feature

Reverse Roman End

We took the traditional roman end and reversed the radiuses to give a more modern look.

This is the perfect pool for someone who appreciates a rectangle pool, but wanted something a little bit more visually interesting.

FEATURES TO CONSIDER

This pool would look great with deck jets tucked into the reverse radiuses.

Sizes

14x28* 16x32
18x36 20x40

MINI VIEW

15x30 Reverse Roman End Pool with Bluestone coping and Capri plaster. Also features a Helix slide and built in barstools.
